

November 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

We are excited to announce that our school will be participating in Odd Socks Day, a campaign initiated by the Anti-Bullying Alliance to promote acceptance and celebrate differences. The campaign uses the playful act of wearing odd socks to send a serious message about bullying and prejudice.

Odd Socks Day has gained popularity worldwide since its inception, with schools, workplaces, and communities embracing the concept as a way to address bullying and promote inclusivity. All you need to do is wear odd socks on the day to celebrate what makes us all unique.

This year, Odd Socks Day will take place on Monday, November 13th, as part of Anti-Bullying Week. We encourage all students to participate and show their support for this important cause.

If you would like to support the Anti-Bullying Alliance charity and help them create safer environments for young people as well as funding further campaigns, please donate £1 to the charity through the School Gateway.

Thank you for your cooperation and support.

Yours sincerely,

N Golds
